OPEN CALL

One artist based in Vietnam for a visual arts residency in Leipzig

The Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany Hanoi and LIA-Leipzig International Art Programme would like to invite an artist based in Vietnam to apply for a three months residency exchange in Leipzig Germany November 2024 to January 2025.

The Leipzig International Art Programme (LIA) is an international artist in residency programme located at the Spinnerei Leipzig (www.spinnerei.de), a former cotton mill and now cultural hub. LIA focuses on being a place for experiment and learning within a strong local artist community and a city rich of traditions. Local and international artists have an impact on each other while exchanging cultural experiences they are shifting the gaze. The founder of LIA, Anna-Louise Rolland, states, “at LIA, we believe that moving outside of our comfort zone leads to new perspectives opening up. International visual artists working together with professional musicians, public space and institutions like museums fits perfectly into this philosophy and this type of collaboration leads to new approaches being developed and new kinds of artistic exchanges taking place”.
